Sir,

Sub: - Holding of the various LICEs, kept in abeyance – requesting revisit the issue and to hold the exams expeditiously - req.

Ref: - BSNL letter No.78-1/2016-Rectt. dated 21.08.2019.

We wish to bring the following to your kind notice, on the subject mentioned above.

The BSNL Corporate Office, vide it's letter number cited under reference, has kept in abeyance the various Limited Internal Competitive Examinations. The Telecom Technician LICE (erstwhile Telecom Mechanic), scheduled to be held on 08.09.2019 has been kept in abeyance. Similarly, the JE LICE, for the Recruitment Year 2017, scheduled to be held in September, 2019, has also been kept in abeyance. Further, the next JTO LICE, i.e., for the vacancy year 2018-19, has also become due.

It is unfortunate that the BSNL Management has decided not to hold all these examinations, and have kept them in abeyance. It is needless to state that talented and young employees are very much required to handle our networks. Besides, keeping these examinations in abeyance is also affecting the career progression of the young Non-Executives working in the Company. In fact, holding these LICEs without any further delay, will be a win-win situation both for the Company, as well as for the employees.

In view of the foregoing, we earnestly urge upon you to revisit this issue and to take the necessary decision for holding the above mentioned examinations without any further delay.

Thanking you,

Yours sincerely,

[P. Abhimanyu]
General Secretary
