Sub: - Extreme delay in holding the Special JTO LICE for the Draftsman cadre under one pretext or the other - requesting to take immediate action for holding the exam expeditiously - reg.

Sir,

We wish to bring the following to your kind notice for favour of appropriate action.

As you are aware, BSNLEU is continuously pursuing the issue of holding of a Special JTO LICE for the Draftsman cadre. Decision for holding a Special JTO LICE, for the left out Draftsmen, was taken in the 26th meeting of the National Council held on 27th February, 2012. Even after so many years, Management has delayed holding of this examination under one pretext or the other.

Earlier, we were told that the vacancy particulars have not come from the Civil and Electrical Branches. BSNLEU pursued the matter with the Civil and Electrical Wings and after much delay, the vacancy positions have been intimated to the Recruitment Branch. However, even thereafter, no step has been taken for holding the Special JTO LICE for the left out Draftsmen.

Under these circumstances, we met you some time back and discussed this issue. You told us that the Recruitment Branch has called for certain documents from the Civil, Electrical Wings. We are really fed-up with the excuses being given by the Management for not holding the Special JTO LICE for the left out Draftsman.

Civil and Electrical Wings are not functioning in a foreign country. They are also part of the Corporate Office. If the Establishment / Recruitment Branches take meaningful action for obtaining the relevant documents, it will not take much time to get the same. Inordinately delaying the holding of the Special JTO LICE for the left out Draftsman cadre by giving lame excuses is not acceptable.

In view of the foregoing, we request you to kindly take expeditious action to issue the notification for holding the Special JTO LICE for the left out Draftsman.

Thanking you,

Yours sincerely
