Sir,

Sub: - MoUs signed by BSNL with Canara Bank and Union Bank of India expired - employees not getting loans due to non-renewal of the MoUs – requesting to intervene - req.

Ref: - (1) Our letter no.BSNLEU/426(LOAN) dated 23.12.2021.
(2) Our letter no.BSNLEU/426(LOAN) dated 16.02.2022.

We wish to bring the following to your kind notice, on the subject mentioned above, for favour of your kind intervention.

Vide letters cited under reference, BSNLEU has already drawn the attention of the Management that, the MoUs signed by BSNL with the Canara Bank and the Union Bank of India, have already expired and that the employees are suffering, since they are not getting various loans from the aforementioned banks, due to the non-renewal of the MoUs.

This issue was discussed by BSNLEU, with the CMD BSNL on 21.12.2021. Prior to that, BSNLEU had also written letters to the Director (HR) and had discussed the matter with him. However, despite our repeatedly knocking the doors of the Management, no improvement has come and the employees continue to suffer due to the non-availability of various loans, like personal loan, housing loan, vehicle loan, etc.

In view of this, we would like to once again draw your kind attention to this issue. We request you to kindly make necessary intervention, so that the MoUs with the Canara Bank and the Union Bank of India are renewed and the employees can avail loans.

Thanking you,

Yours sincerely,

[P. Abhimanyu]
General Secretary
