Madam,

Sub: - Non-settlement of the TA bills of the retired National Council members – req.

We wish to bring the following to your kind notice for favour of necessary action.

An issue raised by the Secretary, Staff Side, in the 39th meeting of the National Council held on 07.08.2023, wherein he stated that, the retired employees who are functioning as National Council members are facing difficulties in the settlement of their TA bills for attending meetings of the National Council. The Secretary, Staff Side, also requested that, the Corporate Office may kindly issue necessary guidelines to the CGMs of the circles, for the prompt payment of the TA bills of the retired employees who are functioning as National Council members.

In continuation of this discussion, we are writing to you on this matter. We earnestly request you to kindly issue expeditious instructions to the Heads of the Circles for the prompt settlement of the TA bills of the National Council members, for attending the National Council meetings. Specific direction may kindly be given for the settlement of the TA bills of the National Council members, who have already retired from the service.

Thanking you,

Yours sincerely

[P. Abhimanyu]
General Secretary
