Sir,

Sub: - Earnest request to wipe the tears of the families of the contract workers - req.

Ref: - BSNLEU letter no.BSNLEU/543(CL) dated 25.03.2020.

Kindly refer to my telephonic conversation with you today, on the subject.

BSNLEU, vide it's letter cited under reference, has already urged upon you, to release the funds, for the payment of wage arrears of the contract workers.

Even though, the wages of the contract workers are not paid for more than 10 months now, the situation has become very grim after the 21 day lock-down has been imposed. It will not be an exaggeration to say that starvation death is staring at the face of the families of the contract workers.

You are also aware that BSNLEU is contributing it's mite to help the contract workers, through collection of donations from BSNL Executives and Non-Executives. At the same time, we would like to inform you that, only the BSNL Management can pull the families of the contract workers out of starvation, by ensuring immediate payment of their wages.

Hence, we once again earnestly implore upon you to kindly ensure that necessary funds are released emergently, to pay the wages of the contract workers. Your action will go a long way in wiping the tears of the families of the contract workers.

Thanking you,

Yours sincerely,
